A Night with The Big Swim Author Carrie Saxifrage

Climate change is alarming and complicated. Some people feel governments are acting too slowly, and many people don't feel informed or empowered to demand action. But ignoring a catastrophe of such magnitude is a certain path to disaster. The Big Swim presents the idea that personal growth arises from facing inner tensions and threats to the biosphere. In a collection of stories that is touching, surprisingly funny, and thought provoking, author Carrie Saxifrage seeks out the places where science meets self-discovery.

Carrie Saxifrage is a journalist and author whose work on First Nations' responses to the proposed Northern Gateway Pipeline has garnered significant critical acclaim. In 2006 she committed herself to the most life-affirming adventure yet: a low-carbon lifestyle.
